BOARD CHAIR

The Arts Club excels in telling stories. We have been doing so since our inception 58 years ago and over that time our stages have been filled with local stories, classic stories, musical stories...stories that tell us about being human. It is no surprise then that the story we told ourselves, and this community, in our 2021-2022 season is one of hope and one of belief. Hope and belief that saw our return to large scale theatrical production as we slowly made our way out of the worst of the pandemic.

Our audiences returned to the Stanley Industrial Alliance Stage for four full productions, and to our Granville Island Stage for one production, that we also remounted. We saw their belief in the power of the shared experience of live theatre to bring humanity together. We saw them laugh and gasp and feel connected across five productions that told unique and intriguing stories, all in a year of uncertainty.

Our donors and funders rose to the occasion and gave us their full support. It is without question that this assistance was vital in facilitating our ability to stage this season. Our new play development initiatives and our myriad of education programs continued to flourish and create the plays and artists of tomorrow. And we have ended the season stronger than when we entered it.

As Board Chair, I have the pleasure of working with an amazing group of talented board members who give generously of their time and support. I would like to thank my predecessor Bryan Mabee for his outstanding service as Board Chair through a most difficult time. To the Chairs of our Board committees, I thank them for all their time and dedication. I especially would like to thank Wanda Costuros as Vice Chair and Chair of the Governance committee for her wisdom and clarity of vision.

I want to thank the amazing teams at the Arts Club who made this season a success. From our outstanding artistic and production teams who put on beautiful productions, to our strong teams in administration, finance, education, facilities, marketing, development, and guest services. You are the heart of the Arts Club and thank you for your dedication. I would also like to thank Peter Cathie White, our Executive Director, and Ashlie Corcoran, our Artistic Director, for their work in ensuring the success we have seen this season.

I would like to extend my appreciation to all our patrons and donors who support this theatre company. Thank you for your loyalty and passion. We hope we have engaged and enthralled you with our productions and we look forward to engaging you across all three of our stages once more in the 2022-2023 season.

Sincerely,

ARTISTIC DIRECTOR

The 2021-2022 season was one for rebuilding. After the challenges we faced as an organization over the previous two seasons, we were hopeful that this season would bring us back to full audiences and larger casts. And it didn't disappoint. To reopen the Stanley Industrial Alliance Stage, our flagship theatre that had been dark since March 2020, we brought Dolly Parton's Smoky Mountain Christmas Carol to life. It was the perfect welcome back show for our audiences and brought theatre magic back to South Granville.

With a typical production season of 15 shows plus a tour, I wanted to take a cautiously optimistic approach to planning the 2021-2022 season. Our hope was that people would return to the theatre—and they did—but when planning, it was hard to predict. We planned a five-show season at the Stanley to gauge audience reaction to returning to live, in-person programming. We were blown away by the response of our patrons and the community.

Of course, COVID-19 was still in the background. We were continuously wondering if anything was going to send us into another period of darkness. Luckily, we only had to postpone one production in the season—Made in Italy. We rescheduled Made in Italy for our Granville Island Stage in the spring, and it was so successful that we brought it back again in the summer.

2021-2022 was also a season of firsts. This is the season that I became a mom, and I took some time away from the Arts Club to spend with my son. I am so grateful to the team of amazing staff who stepped up while I was on maternity leave. A big thank you especially to Rachel Peake, who joined the team as our Associate Artistic Director and executed the artistic vision of the season, and of course to the rest of Team Artistic (Bronwyn Carradine, Koh Lauren Quan, Stephen Drover) and everyone in the production department, led by our indefatigable Director of Production, Ace Martens.

Another first this season is that we were able to offer the inaugural apprenticeships from the Denis Simpson Fund. K.P. Dennis and Tina Chang came aboard as Assistant Director and Assistant Musical Director respectively for our production of Kinky Boots. Thank you to donors who supported the Denis Simpson Fund. You help create these opportunities for artist development!

As I look back on the season, I am so thankful for the incredible team at the Arts Club. From our Front of House and Box Office teams, to Marketing, Development, Education, Facilities, Administration, Finance, and of course the craftspeople and artists in our phenomenal Production and Artistic teams, your hard work is what has seen us through to a new, even bigger production season. And to our Board of Directors, our board chair Art Vertlieb, our Cadence leadership team, and my partner in crime—Peter Cathie White, thank you for your dedication to the company and for stepping up time and time again while I was away.

And lastly, but certainly not least, a big thank you to our generous donors and sponsors who stood by us, even when we were unsure what the upcoming months would bring. It means the world to have you with us, each step of the way.

Yours,

EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR

The 2021-2022 season has me reflecting on the crucial need of a community's support for the arts to thrive. And, as the second season disrupted by the ongoing pandemic, the Arts Club certainly needed the support of this community to be able to return to large-scale productions. Albeit with a reduced season, but one supported by our community both in audience numbers and in donations. We were able to do what we did in the 2021-2022 season because we were supported by our community. And we are humbly grateful for it.

For the arts cannot sustain itself. It cannot continue to grow and innovate how stories are told and how artists can flourish alone. Through the ages, the arts has always needed the support of its local community to bloom, a patronage who intrinsically get the importance of the arts in understanding humanity, understanding who we are as a community, as a nation, and as humans. The Québécois poet Gabrielle Roy said it so well on the face of our old $20 Canadian bill, "could we ever know each other in the slightest without the arts?"

And theatre is the most immediate form I know of for getting to know ourselves, and getting to know aspects of humanity that may be different from our lived experience. Theatre allows artists to focus their storytelling in ways that allow us to reflect on who we are, who others are, and who we all could be. And, through that, we create an understanding for all of humanity. We get to know who we are.

So I want you to all pat yourselves on the back for supporting this most intangible of art forms. An art form that you experience for a fleeting moment but that stays with you for a lifetime. An art form that fulfills our needs as humans to gather, together, and allow ourselves the freedom to feel. Thank you for your ongoing support of that.

I give praise to every single member of the Arts Club team for this season. Without the work done by these Arts Clubbers, without their dedication and passion for the art that we make and the storytelling we enliven, our theatres would have remained cold and dark. They fill them with warmth and light. Thank you all. I am also grateful for the support from our volunteer board and make special mention of Board Chair Art Vertlieb, whose leadership has supported our company with a strong and engaged board. Thank you to our board for your faith in this season. Thank you also to our Foundation board for your support.

Many should also be thanked, including the Federal Government for their support through the Canada Council for the Arts and for COVID supports, the BC Provincial Government which also provided funds to support this season through their Anchor Attractions initiative and through the BC Arts Council, and the City of Vancouver for their funding supports. Our donors also generously supported our activity this season and remain the foundation on which we can further artistic investment. Thank you!

My colleague, and Artistic Director, Ashlie Corcoran remains at the heart of the strong artistic vision of this company. And she gets thanks from my heart for all she does to support me, even when on leave! We were one of the first theatre companies in this country to boldly take the risk to program a full season of large-scale theatre again. As well we should be. We are, after all, the Arts Club. And you can thank our community for that.

2021/2022 TRAVELING PRODUCTIONS

While we may not have had a lower mainland tour this year, we did have several productions travel to perform in other cities and with other companies. Thanks to the tremendous hard work of our teams, we were able to continue expanding our reach, despite the limitations of a reduced season.

Noises Off at the Massey Theatre in New Westminster, BC – February 15 – 27, 2022

Made In Italy at Theatre Aquarius in Hamilton, ON – February 22 – March 12, 2022

Beneath Springhill at Neptune Theatre in Halifax, NS – March 1 – 20, 2022

Kim's Convenience at Western Canada Theatre in Kamloops, BC – March 31 – April 9, 2022

Kim's Convenience at Alberta Theatre Projects in Calgary, AB – April 13 – May 1, 2022

LISTEN TO THIS: SERIES 2

In addition to our outstanding productions for the stage last season, we were able to continue developing new work through our "Listen to This" series, generously supported by the Canada Council's Digital Now initiative. Over the 2021-2022 season, we supported and produced three audio plays—all adapted from scripts created here with the Arts Club.

Redbone Coonhound by Amy Lee Lavoie and Omari Newton, directed by Kayvon Khoshkom

The Cull by Michele Rimpl and Michael St. John Smith, directed by Mindy Parfitt

The Wrong Bashir by Zahid Rahemtulla, directed by Sherry Yoon

As well as producing exciting audio experiences, this process helped point these three scripts towards their premiere stage productions. The world premieres of Redbone Coonhound and The Cull appear in our 2022-2023 season and the world premiere of The Wrong Bashir will also happen in the Vancouver theatre community this season!

JESSIE RICHARDSON THEATRE AWARDS

The annual Jessie Richardson Theatre Awards celebrate and promote the outstanding achievements of the Vancouver professional theatre community. This season, 17 nominations were associated with Arts Club productions!

MADE IN ITALY

BACK BY POPULAR DEMAND!

Made in Italy by Farren Timoteo ran not once, but twice on our Granville Island Stage in the 2021-2022 season.

With the resounding audience response from the production's first run from March 17–April 17, we realized that we wanted to give more people an opportunity to see Farren Timoteo's amazing work—or to see it a second, third, or fourth time! Made in Italy came back again for a limited run during the summer from July 28–August 21.

One of the things that made Made In Italy so successful is that its impact reached far beyond the Italian-Canadian community. We heard again and again from immigrants from all over the world, and the families of immigrants, how universal the story is. It speaks to anyone who has felt like an outsider, who has searched for a place, for a home, in a world that has felt full of closed doors. Bringing it back for the summer allowed that word of mouth to spread, allowing us to share with people who had missed it the first time around—in some cases because they were not yet ready to be out in crowds, but by the summer they were feeling more confident—folding them into the Made in Italy experience.

In addition to sharing this beautiful, touching story with our community, we wanted to activate our Granville Island Stage in the summertime and provide further opportunities to employ artists and technical crew, adding to our ability to help those artists reactivation of their career post-shutdown!

THE RADAR: New Works in Progress

After a 2-year hiatus, the Arts Club's showcase of new scripts returned with a new name. What used to be "ReACT" is now "The Radar: New Works in Progress" and the inaugural line-up of bold new projects reflected the excitement, diversity, and passion of the Canadian theatre community.

This series featured four new works by Canadian playwrights. After each reading, audience members were invited to take part in a discussion with Stephen Drover (New Works and Professional Engagement) and the playwright to talk about the script and its creation process. The Radar demonstrates the Arts Club's commitment to fostering new works, making the creative process more accessible, and providing a public forum for feedback, as some of Canada's most talented actors, directors, and playwrights bring new scripts to life.

Stephen Drover, who works with the playwrights to develop the scripts said, "The Radar is an exciting opportunity to get a sneak peek at projects we've been working on, plus other scripts we think are really wonderful. In the 2022 Radar, we heard two scripts that were originally commissioned for our Listen to This audio play series that we now wanted to see adapted for a live stage, an exciting and funny new "true crime whodunnit" musical, and a script that was created in our Emerging Playwrights Unit that will be developed as a part of our Silver Commissions program. We were thrilled to bring this reading series back to the Newmont Stage."

The Scripts:

Armchair Confidential by Aaron Jensen (a new musical)
Sunday, August 14; directed by Barbara Tomasic

Lucy, a neurotic 40-something accountant, uncovers a pattern in the recent murders that have plagued the quaint neighbouring town of Barnabus Bay. She enlists the reluctant help of her childhood bestie, Aldo, and his tagalong four-month-old. The friends learn through arguments and escapades that tackling their emotional baggage may be even harder than catching a killer. Armchair Confidential is a buddy comedy that explores our society's obsession with True Crime through the lens of golden-age musical theatre.

Night Bodies by Scott Button (a new thriller)
Monday, August 15; directed by Bobby Gargia

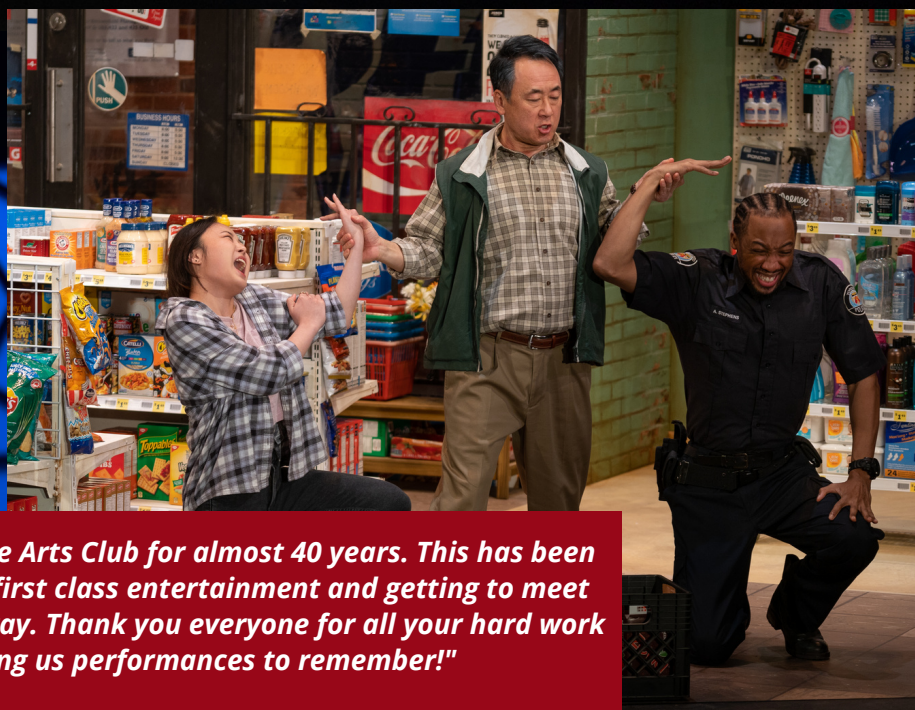

Ottawa, 1958. A young, queer man moves from a rural town to the big city, eager to find his independence and reinvent himself as "straight" — only to be drawn into a seductive web of secrets, paranoia and horror with the couple that lives next door. A stylish exploration of repression and social alienation, Night Bodies shines a light on a largely untold chapter of Canadian LGBTQ+ history.

Someone Like You by Christine Quintana (a new comedy)
Tuesday, August 16; directed by Jamie King

Isabelle is a life-long romantic - but modern love isn't like a pop song or an old novel. Her best friend Kristen is embarking on a rebound romance, but things get complicated when Isabelle's wing-man duties cross the line. This new comedy launches Cyrano de Bergerac into the 21st century: mistaken identities, millennial manifestos, and the quest for self-love. What's your love story?

Bella Luz by Alexandra Lainfiesta (a new drama)
Wednesday, August 17; directed by Stephen Drover

Bella Luz is a trilingual ode to the multilayered journeys of living in diaspora. Sumailla, a newcomer to Canada, negotiates the overwhelming Canadian immigration system, the pressure to find a job, and a hopeful new love. But when she has to choose between those three – and when pressure from her family back home forces her hand – Sumailla reconsiders what it meant to leave home and, in fact, where home is. Travelling a Latinx odyssey through magic realism, music, movement, dance, and humour, Sumailla finds her inner and outer worlds constantly colliding as she pursues her quest to belong.

"I have been a supporter of the Arts Club for almost 40 years. This has been the best part of my life, with first class entertainment and getting to meet some of the actors along the way. Thank you everyone for all your hard work and devotion to giving us performances to remember!"

- Lilly Flather, Artistic Director's Circle member

SILVER COMMISSIONS PROJECT

The Silver Commissions program provides funding for a playwright to complete a new play with the goal of producing it on one of our stages. Every year we offer two Silver Commissions to local playwrights with the commitment to developing both the script and a relationship with the playwright. An average development period for a script is three years, which includes dramaturgical support, development workshops with actors, and both public and private readings to help in the realization of the playwright's vision. Thanks to the generosity of donors Stan and Kathy Hamilton, the Arts Club has been offering the Silver Commissions program since 2006.

During the 2021-2022 season we had numerous Silver Commission scripts in active development:

Redbone Coonhound by Amy Lee Lavoie and Omari Newton (premiered on the Newmont Stage at the BMO Theatre Centre in the fall of 2022)

The Cull by Michele Riml & Michael St. John Smith (programmed for production in the 2022-2023 season)

Forgiveness by Hiro Kanagawa (programmed for production in the 2022-2023 season)

Mom's The Word: Talkin' Turkey by the Mom's the Word Collective (programmed for production in the 2022-2023 season)

TBD by Quelemia Sparrow (commissioned for audio)

The Wrong Bashir by Zahida Rahemtulla (new draft commissioned for audio)

Despite the limitations of the pandemic, this development allowed us to prepare four Silver Commission scripts for world premiere in the 2022-2023 season—the most we've ever had!

EDUCATION & OUTREACH

One of the focusses for the 2021-2022 season was to provide more opportunities for community engagement around our productions. Where in the past we would concentrate on panels and guest speakers, this year we decided to try something more immersive and celebratory. Here's a little glimpse of some of our education show outreach initiatives from the season.

SHOW OUTREACH EVENTS

Fros, Fades, and Braids – On April 23 we held a live cabaret event on the Newmont Stage that showcased some of Vancouver's finest black performing artists and hosted by our Community Liaison, Omari Newton. This cabaret complimented our production of 'da Kink in my Hair with the artists reflecting on the black hair experience as the primary theme. Hugely successful with broad audience representation, this event brought together diverse communities in a beautiful night of music and poetry.

Good Epiphany Cabaret – On July 25 we kicked off Pride week by bringing a selection of Vancouver's most exciting drag performers to the Newmont Stage. Hosted by Kinky Boots cultural consultant, Rae Takei AKA Rose Butch, this sell-out performance celebrated diversity, inclusion, and killer outfits!

Sunday Salons – Each of the shows for the 2021-2022 season included a Sunday Salon pre-performance talk to give our audiences an opportunity to further explore the content, themes, and backgrounds of our productions. Guest speakers included UBC lecturers Stefano Gulmanelli and Arianna Dagnino, Rae Takei, and Omari Newton.

ADULT COURSES

During the pandemic, we saw an increase of interest from adults in our workshops and courses, which grew into a community of learners who are passionate about theatre. This past season, we introduced five adult courses that invited folks ages 18+ to learn the craft of theatre-making. Our adult courses included:

Acting 101

A 10-week intro-level acting course. Students learned the foundations of acting: character creation, scene work, improvisation, and physical theatre. The course culminated with the students presenting original scenes that they had created.

Acting 102

This online 10-week course taught students the fundamentals of working with a script. Students explored text analysis, character work, collaborating with a scene partner, and scene work based on acclaimed scripts.

Community Creates

This was the second time that we offered our devised theatre program for adults, and first time we offered it in-person! A program that culminated with students performing an original show they collaboratively created on the Newmont Stage focused on exploration of acting, writing and movement. The students created a show called Springfield Central that shed light on stories happening in a train station.

Playwriting 101

An online 8-week course provided students with the fundamentals of playwriting, from character development and dialogue to conflict and scene structure.

Improv Flight

A partnership with Tighrope Theatre, during this 8-week course students had the chance to taste the different elements that are part of improv. A variety of instructors taught improv techniques and formats such as "Maestro". At the end of the course, students improvise a full-length, hilarious "soap opera"!

GRANT BURNYEAT STUDENT SERIES

The Grant Burnyeat Student Series is an initiative developed in collaboration with longtime theatre supporter and former Arts Club board member, Justice Grant Burnyeat. The intention of this program is twofold: to provide meaningful opportunities for youth to participate in the arts on a more frequent basis and to strengthen relationships between the Arts Club and public Vancouver secondary schools.

As part of the Grant Burnyeat Student Series, we offered the Grant Burnyeat Creative Essays Exhibition; a celebration of students' thoughts on and impressions of the impact of theatre, expressed through multiple creative mediums. We invited students to submit an entry to the exhibition exploring the role of theatre in our lives in communities.

Two students were selected to receive a $500 scholarship: Grace Qiu from Magee Secondary and Mika Gardner from Killarney Secondary. Congratulations!

DENIS SIMPSON FUND

Supporting Equality, Diversity, and Inclusion

Two years ago, we committed to making the Arts Club a more inclusive, equitable and accessible place for all patrons, staff, artists and community members. The Denis Simpson Fund offers opportunities to BIPOC (Black, Indigenous, People of Colour) artists in our community through paid internships and apprenticeships. The Denis Simpson Fund is endowed in the Arts Club's Foundation, which means that the principal amount put into the fund will be invested and continue to grow over time. We have committed to fundraise for the Denis Simpson Fund annually for the foreseeable future, so the principal amount can continue to grow, thereby creating more opportunities in the community. In 2021-2022 we were able to grow the fund to almost $150,000.

We were also able to give out the first two grants from the Denis Simpson Fund. We welcomed K.P. Dennis and Tina Chang as Assistant Director and Assistant Musical Director respectively for our production of Kinky Boots—opportunities that wouldn't have been possible without the help of donors like Bonnie Mah, who stepped forward last summer to provide the additional funding needed to make these apprenticeships a reality.

"I assistant directed on Kinky Boots. I learned a lot about the whole scope that goes into putting on a full production... As an emerging creative, it's really hard to make that leap into professional spaces. The Denis [Simpson] Fund bridges that gap and gets me into the space to learn and make contacts, and learn from all these amazing, talented people who work at the Arts Club..."

This [is an] opportunity that I wouldn't really be able to have without the fund. The future of theatre depends on this money to bring in new faces and new voices and I'm so grateful to have the opportunity to be here and to keep growing in my field."

—K.P. Dennis

Assistant Director, Kinky Boots

"As a self-described "theatre junkie", I get an absolute thrill when the theatre elements of script, direction, design, crew and cast are aligned to illuminate an aspect of our human existence. For many years, I have come to expect the Arts Club to consistently deliver high production value theatre experiences, with a mix of Broadway hits and new plays, and trustingly renew my subscriptions before the next full season of shows is announced. We are also fortunate to have the Arts Club's leadership and foresight in developing the next generation of theatre artists to ensure that the "show will continue to go on" for years to come."
