Arts Club Tour 2026

Country Roads of Ireland

September 11, 2026 – September 25, 2026

Let the luck of the Irish be with you on this 12 day guided tour across Ireland. Start the tour in Dublin where you get up close to the Book of Kells, an ancient Gospel manuscript filled with mythical beasts and Celtic knots. In Kilkenny visit the majestic Kilkenny Castle. A chef will share traditional Irish recipes at a farm-to-table feast in Killarney. You'll see the Ring of Kerry, a mystical, verdant peninsula dotted with seaside villages. Step onto Giant's Causeway with its basalt columns carved onto the coast by volcanic lava or by a giant's feet if Irish myth is to be believed. And more . . .

Day 1: Friday, September 11, 2026: Depart Vancouver

Today the Arts Club group optional flight departs on AC #918 at 3:05 p.m. non-stop to Dublin.

Day 2: Saturday, September 12, 2026: Welcome to Dublin

The Arts Club group arrives today at 7:45 a.m. and will have a group transfer to the hotel. In Dublin join your Travel Director for a warm and friendly dinner, with the opportunity to mingle and get to know each other. For three nights we'll be staying at the Trinity City Hotel or similar. (Dinner)

Day 3: Sunday, September 13, 2026: Dublin's Fair City

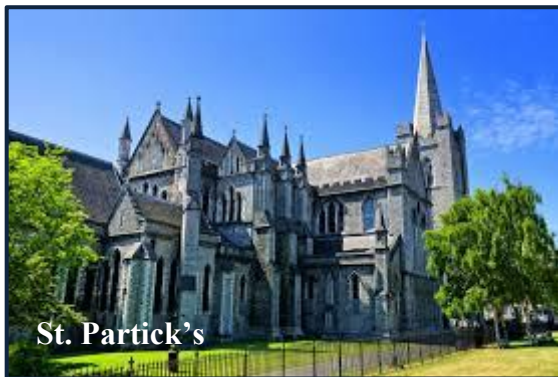

Today you will be accompanied by a local guide to get acquainted with Dublin's elegant squares. Discover Custom House, Christ Church Cathedral and St. Patrick's Cathedral. Enjoy a viewing of the 9th century Book of Kells, followed by a walk through the cobbled courtyards of Trinity College. (B)

Day 4: Monday, September 14, 2026: Dublin Your Way

Today is a free day to explore the Irish capital as you please. (B)

Day 5: Tuesday, September 15, 2026: A Journey from Dublin to Cork

This morning you will visit one of the country's main racehorse breeding centers, also home to the acclaimed 100 year old Japanese Gardens where you can 'journey through life' during a walk through the beautiful surroundings. Then travel to the medieval city of Kilkenny to visit the majestic Kilkenny Castle and learn how the castle was built in 1195 after the Norman Conquest of Ireland; you'll have the opportunity to admire its beautifully restored Victorian-era rooms. Then continue through Cahir and see its imposing 13th century castle that was featured in the film Excalibur on the way to Cork. Arriving in Cork, your travel director will show you around this compact university city with its vibrant waterfront and grand Georgian parades. Tonight we'll be staying at the Kingsley Hotel Cork or similar. (B)

Day 6: Wednesday, September 16, 2026: Across the Mountains to Killarney

Today travel to the ruined Blarney Castle and Gardens where you can hang upside down from the ramparts to kiss the stone and ensure a lifetime of eloquence. Then travel across the majestic Derrynasaggart Mountains to the lively town of Killarney. This evening you will be able to enjoy a farm-to-table dining experience and savor the delicious flavours of fresh local Irish home cuisine in the kitchen of Chef John Sheehan, your host at the 19th Green Guesthouse on this "MAKE TRAVEL MATTER® Experience" where you'll enjoy responsibly sourced ingredients from the local community and gain personal insight into classic Irish recipes that are loved throughout the world. We'll spend two nights at the Europe Hotel and Resort Killarney. (B, D)

Day 7: Thursday, September 17, 2026: Killarney - Ring of Kerry Experience

After breakfast this morning, you can start your day with an Insight Choice. You might choose a memorable ride on a horse-drawn jaunting car with the local jarveys. Alternatively, if you are fit, have good walking shoes, sunscreen and rain gear, you might join a gentle hike with a local expert along the lake shore past the grounds of Ross Castle, admiring the incredible scenery of the National Park. Then explore around the magnificent Ring of Kerry where mountains, valleys, lakes and sea blend into a landscape that is breathtaking beyond words. Then journey past lush lakelands and around towering cliffs as you appreciate sweeping sea views, continuing through delightful villages like Sneem and crossing the peat bogs of the Black Mountains to Moll's Gap to admire Queen Victoria's Ladies View. The rest of the afternoon is at your leisure when you might take the opportunity to hire a bicycle and enjoy one of the many scenic trails around the lake or through the National Park. Then again, you might enjoy the hotel pools. (B)

Day 8: Friday, September 18, 2026: Around the Dingle Peninsula to Limerick

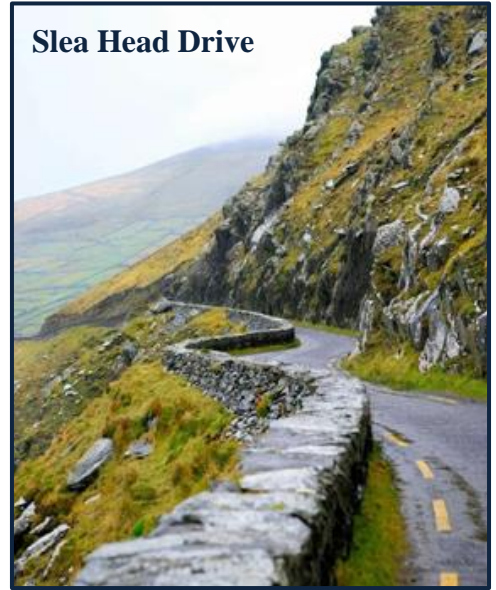

After breakfast this morning we will depart Killarney and follow the scenic Sleah Head Drive journeying through the rugged beauty of the Dingle Peninsula. We'll travel past windswept cliffs, golden beaches and ancient stone dwellings, enjoying views stretching to the remote Blasket Islands. In the afternoon we will head north to Tarbert where we'll board a ferry to cross the Shannon Estuary to Killimer, a historic crossing point where Ireland's longest river meets the Atlantic. Keep an eye out for bottlenose dolphins which are often seen in these waters. We then continue to our hotel in Limerick, the George Hotel Limerick City or similar. This evening we will enjoy a feast at the Medieval Bunratty Castle. (B, D)

Day 12: Tuesday, September 22, 2026: Walking in the Giant's Steps

Today we'll visit the iconic Giant's Causeway, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, where thousands of interlocking basalt columns form one of nature's most extraordinary landscapes. You can explore this legendary setting at your own pace before we continue along the scenic Antrim Coast Road with its dramatic cliffs and coastal views. We'll then arrive in Ballygally and settle into the Ballygally Castle Hotel overlooking the bay. If you're feeling brave, perhaps you might venture into the Ghost Room hidden within one of the castle's turrets. This evening, gather with your fellow travelers to enjoy an evening of warm hospitality and regional cuisine. (B, D)
