NOVEMBER 4, 2024, VANCOUVER, B.C. // Traditional territory of the xʷməθkʷəy̓əm, Sḵwxwú7mesh and səlilwətał Nations – The Arts Club Theatre Company continues the holiday merriment with their presentation of the charming The Gingerbread Men: A\(nother\) Holiday Cabaret, on the Newmont Stage at the BMO Theatre Centre from December 5 to 22.

Prepare to be whisked away on a dough-lightful cabaret of classic holiday songs as The Gingerbread Men return to the Arts Club stage this holiday season. Fresh out of the pan with their signature golly-gee charm, toe-tapping tunes, and buttery-smooth harmonies, The Gingerbread Men: A(nother) Holiday Cabaret is the perfect recipe for a holly jolly good time.

“We have a rich history with the Arts Club Theatre Company,” said Jeffrey Victor, co-founder and lead singer. “Our group was formed during the 2012 Arts Club production of White Christmas. During our 10-year anniversary in 2022, we were invited by Artistic Director Ashlie Corcoran to return to the Arts Club for a one-night only concert; it was truly a full circle moment. People loved the show and today, we are delighted to be back for our third Christmas season. The comment we hear the most from audiences is that ‘it’s not Christmas until we see The Gingerbread Men.’ We love that we have become a holiday tradition for Vancouverites aged 1 to 91.”

Handsome, dashing, debonair served with a side of holiday ham and cheese, The Gingerbread Men—Brennan Cuff, Brandyn Eddy, Jer Lowe, Jeffrey Victor—have been crooning holiday classics since 2012. Their repertoire spans many musical genres including doo wop, jazz, holiday standards, and acapella, all while ensuring they don’t stray too far from the versions you know and love. The charming Gingerbread Men are sure to gingersnap you into the Christmas spirit!
