FEBRUARY 3, 2026, VANCOUVER, B.C./ / Traditional territory of the xʷməθkʷəy̓əm, Sḵwx̱wú7mesh and səlilwətaɬ Nations – The Arts Club Theatre Company's production of The Golden Anniversaries begins a twelve city tour across British Columbia from February 17 to April 12. Directed by Arthi Chandra, The Golden Anniversaries is a witty, romantic, and deeply relatable comedy-drama by acclaimed Canadian playwright Mark Crawford.

Two people, one cottage, fifty years—a humorous and moving portrait of long-term love. The Golden Anniversaries follows Glen (Peter Anderson) and Sandy (Eileen Barrett) Golden, who have celebrated every wedding anniversary by coming to the same cottage for a romantic getaway. This year, however, expectations are upended when Sandy cancels their big anniversary party and kicks Glen to the curb—now, he wants to talk. What unfolds is a weekend filled with laughter, reflection, tenderness, regret, and the honest reckoning that comes from sharing a life together.

“Mark Crawford captures the humour and emotional depth in everyday life with his sharp dialogue and witty writing,” said Ashlie Corcoran, Arts Club Theatre Company Artistic Director. “Audiences of all ages can connect with these characters and recognize themselves and those around them in this heartfelt exploration of love, aging, and relationships.”

The play's focus on long-term partnerships celebrates both the challenges and joys of life's later years. From the writer of Bed and Breakfast and The Birds and the Bees, this production delivers a refreshing and vital perspective on the complexity of love that deepens with time. The Golden Anniversaries had its Western Canadian premiere on the Granville Island Stage in Vancouver.
