

2019 Bill Millerd Artist Fund grants

The Arts Club Theatre Company invites applications for individual grants from the Bill Millerd Artist Fund. Named for and established by the Arts Club's Artistic Director Emeritus, Bill Millerd, this fund gives a head start to artists who wish to pursue their dreams and strengthen their craft. This year the Arts Club has $35,000 to award to B.C. theatre artists who are interested in pursuing professional development activities.

WHAT TYPE OF FUNDING IS AVAILABLE?

The purpose of the fund is to assist B.C. theatre artists with expenses related to unique opportunities that will advance their artistic development. Proposals must clearly demonstrate how the opportunity is timely, unique to the applicant's development, and has true potential to impact their artistic career. Acceptable opportunities include:

- Professional development workshops or classes
- Travel expenses associated with a professional opportunity
- Mentorships or apprenticeships
- Residencies with a theatre company
- Tuition costs to pursue professional training

The minimum amount for funding consideration is $500. Funding cannot be used to offset show production costs.

WHO IS ELIGIBLE?

Applicant must be 1) a resident of B.C. and 2) a working professional theatre artist or enrolled in post-secondary training with the goal of a professional theatre career. Both emerging and established artists are eligible to apply.

HOW TO APPLY

Please include in the application:

- A letter of intent (3 pages max.) outlining how the proposed opportunity would contribute to your professional development and how you would use the award
- A résumé or bio outlining your professional experience, training, and any other related experience
- A budget for the proposed opportunity

Submissions are reviewed by a jury of curatorial staff and guest personnel. Shortlisted candidates may be contacted for a follow up interview. Retroactive funding is not available. Please note that, upon completion of the project or opportunity, a final report will be required. Decisions will be made and funds distributed in April 2019.

Email applications to Associate Artistic Director Stephen Drover at sdrover@artsclub.com by Tuesday, February 19, 2019, using the subject line: "Bill Millerd Artist Fund."
